Section 27.3 – Review of Preliminary Plans by the Planning Commission – Standards and Required Improvements

- B. Application for review and possible site plan approval of a site condominium project plan shall be initiated by an applicant filing with the Zoning Administrator a written application along with a preliminary plan. To be placed on the agenda, the application and the preliminary plan must be filed at least thirty (30) days prior to the date of the Planning Commission meeting at which review is requested. The application and preliminary plan submitted for review shall comply with the following requirements and contain the following data:
1. A completed and signed application form as supplied by the Township.
 2. A plan showing the boundary of the subject property and its relationship to all contiguous properties, drawn at a scale of not more than 200 feet to the inch.
 3. Written proof of applicant's ownership of the subject property or, if the subject property is not owned by the applicant, written authorization signed by the owner of the subject property for the applicant to act on behalf of the owner.
 4. A location map showing the relationship of the subject property to the surrounding area (the area within one-half (1/2) mile).
 5. The proposed layout of streets, common areas and building sites.
 6. The relationship of proposed streets to adjacent streets and relationship of improvements and significant physical features to neighboring properties and public and private utilities.
 7. Existing physical conditions and characteristics of the subject property including, but without limitation, existing structures, wooded areas, topography at two (2) foot contours, flood plains, wetlands, streams and drainage.
 8. Proposed grading and storm drainage improvements and the location(s) of proposed detention/retention ponds.
 9. Proposed arrangements for wells, septic, public water, public sewer or other means for addressing a potable water supply and sanitary sewer needs.
 10. The existing land use and the existing zoning of the subject property and all contiguous properties.
 11. Preliminary building site data including number of building sites, minimum building site area and building site width.

12. An application fee in accordance with the fee schedule established from time to time by resolution of the Township Board.

The following Chapter of the Zoning Ordinance applies to the proposed use. Please see the Planner for copy of the Chapter or the Zoning Ordinance in its entirety. The applicant is advised to review the Chapter accordingly.
